Cast	Character	Description
Wayne Mundis	Sinbad the Sailor (OLD)	The elderly narrator. He is full of life and very wise.
Jesse Snyder	Sinbad the Sailor (MIDDLE)	A cocky boy, still finding out who he is. He is too proud for his own good and a bit greedy for treasure or any sort.
Chance Rohrbaugh	Sinbad the Sailor (YOUNG)	An adventurous young man. A bit too proud, but is looking for his niche in the world.
Anthony Minoglio	Sinbad the Porter	A naive and cocky boy. He is a rebel, but also stuck up. He cares mostly about himself at the beginning, but slowly transforms.
Heather Waller	First Mate	The comic relief character. He is laid back. The best friend of the Merchant.
Zak Thomas	Merchant	The other comic relief, but a bit more strict. He is the superstitious crew member. He also questions everything.
Katie Taylor	Rukh Ensemble	Mother of three baby birds. She is very defensive of her nest.
David Hamme	The Cyclops (The Giant) Ensemble	A very stupid and giant monster. He talks and thinks very slowly.
Katherine Andrews	The Herder Ensemble	He is calm, but has a twisted personality and seems misunderstood. He is the Cheshire Cat of Sinbad's voyage.
Jessica Zeidler	The Queen Ensemble	She rules the island of the Following Fruit. She is maniacal and evil.
Nicole Gauthier	The Princess Ensemble	The daughter of the Queen. She is annoying, demanding, and a little ditzy.

Erin Gildea	Old Man Ensemble	A very elderly person who has trouble walking (he hitches a piggy back ride with Sinbad). He is very manipulative and conniving.
Emily White	Woman with Wings Ensemble	An angelic woman who becomes possessive. She appreciates the beauty of the world. She is a very graceful being.
Drew Brooks	Rajah Ensemble	A boy sultan. He desires peace but can see achieving it only through violence. He was once good, but is now corrupted.
Dimitra Skouras	Grandfather Elephant Ensemble	A wise old elephant.
Michael Andrews	King of Madagascar Ensemble	He is an elderly man who helps Sinbad. He is very generous.
Aaron Spangler	Stranger on Madagascar Ensemble	He is full of wonder and easily amused. He is a simpleton who is eager to serve the King.
Megan Sylvester Kenice Miller Michelle Kirk Sarah Schumaker	Pirates	A tight-knit band of girls.
Michael Crone	Guard 1	The Guards to Sinbad the Sailor's Palace
Michelle Kirk	Guard 2	The Guards to Sinbad the Sailor's Palace
